Spotlight on Rodney Kearney

Continuing our series on returning members of the executive, this week we find out a bit more about Rodney Kearney. Rodney is a selector, on the men's match committee, and is one of our bar managers.

Rodney grew up in Townsville, Queensland, Australia. On leaving school in 1978 he took up a carpentering apprenticeship which he completed in 1981. He worked as a carpenter and builder for the next 23 years, mostly self employed.

In 2004 he started retraining as a building designer and by 2006 was working full time in that role. He has designed houses ranging in value from $500k to over $5m and also a 2000m² office space for a regional council in Australia.

In 2014 Rodney moved to Christchurch. It was the first time he had held a passport and when he started drinking coffee! In Christchurch he helped with project management for Frontier Engineers who were doing rebuilding work after the earthquakes. Covid brought an end to that company and Rodney took up a job with Silverstar Developments and is now working for Construct Enterprises.

In 1989 he had a 4m fall on a building site and was off work for 10 weeks. He broke every bone in his right wrist and hand. Nevertheless he took up bowls in 1991 playing for the Home Hill Bowling Club in Home Hill. He won a B singles title (similar to our Junior grade) in 1992 and an A&B pairs title in 1992. After moving back to Townsville in around 1999 Rodney played for the Jubilee Bowling Club and also served as the president of the Jubilee Bowling Club for 2 years.

Rodney enjoys a round of social golf, watching action movies and gaming. He also enjoys producing computerised 3D images especially for the buildings he has designed.

He has 3 grandchildren and a great grandson in Melbourne, 2 grandchildren in Townsville and a granddaughter in Whangarei with another great grandson due in November.
